ENTRY INFORMATION & ELIGIBILITY

In Frank Lloyd Wright's original design of Unity Temple, the Unity House community gathering space included a landscape mural above the fireplace. A juried competition invites artists to create a digital mural, with the selected images projected above the Unity House fireplace as a temporary digital installation during the Symposium of Art events.

- Entry is open to BOTH U.S. BASED AND INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS, ages 18 and over.
- Only DIGITAL entries are permitted, addressing nature and contemporary ecosystem themes.
- Only static (still digital photography) images will be considered. Videography will not be accepted.
- Entries for the digital mural competition must be submitted via high-quality images in JPEG/JPG or PNG PANORAMIC formats. 3:1 aspect ratio, or 16:9 format. No smaller than 1920 x 1080 pixels.
Note: Selected images will be projected directly onto the (light brown) surface over the fireplace. See mural projection logistics in the image below.

- One $35 nonrefundable fee entitles artists to submit up to three entries.
- A statement of up to 300 words on how your art responds to the call theme will be required upon acceptance.
- Selected artists will be required to submit a short bio by October 25, 2023.

- All entries and payments must be submitted via Call for Entries (CaFE). Please follow the directions on CaFE. Questions related to submitting through the CaFE platform should be directed to CaFE. If you have exhibition questions, please contact: art@utrff.org
- Selected artists give permission to publish their work with name credit to the artist for promotion purposes through print media, television, social media, and Symposium of Art website and will further allow the release of such information to exhibition partners.
- All works submitted must be of your own original creation. Works by multiple artists or AI-generated works will not be accepted. Through the submission of your artwork means you agree to this.
- UTF mails exhibition award checks up to 45 days after the exhibition close. It is the artist's responsibility to ensure that their mailing address is correct in their CaFE account. If the artist fails to list their address correctly, UTF is not responsible for any fees associated with canceling and reissuing a new award check to the artist.
